

Alex Kasule Aram (4 ½ years)

Alex is the first born and child. His father died of a road motor accident in September of 2009, only 6 months after he was born. Alex now 4 ½ years, lives with his mother in a rented single room in Kampala, Uganda. Alex's Mother has no job and life is very difficult for them. Alex's mother depends on support from friends and well-wishers for their daily survival. At times, this support is not there and they go without food many times. Last year, Alex's mother offered to help with casual work in a nearby school in Lieu of school fees so that Alex can start schooling. At the same time she has to struggle to find money for food and house rent, which is very difficult since she has no Job.

At school, Alex enjoys playing soccer, and singing with friends.

He wishes to become a Medical Doctor when she grows up.
